Models, artists, makers, partners and poets. Discover the untold stories of the Pre-Raphaelite Sisters

170 years after the first pictures were exhibited by the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood in 1849, Pre-Raphaelite Sisters, explores the overlooked contribution of twelve women to this iconic artistic movement. Featuring new discoveries and unseen works from public and private collections across the world, this show reveals the women behind the pictures and their creative roles in Pre-Raphaelite's successive phases between 1850 and 1900.

Exhibition Catalogue

For far too long the male protagonists of the Pre-Raphaelite movement have dominated accounts of this revolution in British art. This book aims to redress the balance in showing just how engaged and central women were to the endeavour - as models, sitters, artists and helpmeets.

Le Caprice Package

In celebration of the National Portrait Gallery's Pre-Raphaelite Sisters exhibition, Le Caprice are offering a 2 course meal and a glass of wine and an exhibition ticket for just £43 per person.

Le Caprice, located behind the Ritz Hotel in St James's, first opened in 1947, under Mario Gallati, former Maître d' of The Ivy. However, it was on its relaunch in 1981 that it became the world famous restaurant it is today. Le Caprice's menu features modern British dishes prepared with carefully sourced seasonal game, meat, fish and vegetables accompanied by the most sumptuous desserts.
